EXPEDIA NAMES LENOX “BEST PLACE TO ESCAPE IN MA”

1/4/18, LENOX, MA - The Lenox Chamber of Commerce announced today that travel booking website giant Expedia has named Lenox as the “Best Place to Escape in Massachusetts”.

Expedia.com released its Best Place to Escape in Every State feature on January 3, 2018. Expedia found the one best destination to escape to in each state in the U.S. These places made the list for being ideal for a relaxing getaway where you can recharge, take a breather and revel in serene solitude.

“...From quaint small towns to quiet nature preserves, this country is full of places to escape to, and we’ve chosen our favorite in each state, highlighting the perfectly restful things to do there. So, sit back, relax, and start dreaming of better times ahead—these calm places are calling your name” Expedia author Lily Rogers writes,

Lenox and Berkshire notables highlighted were Blantyre, Pleasant Valley Wildlife Sanctuary, The Mount, Edith Wharton’s Home, and Berkshire Grown.

“It’s very exciting for Expedia to recognize Lenox as the exceptional place it is once again.” Jamie Trie, Marketing Director for the Lenox Chamber said. “Last year, Expedia named Lenox as a top luxury vacation spot, and USA TODAY named us the Best Northeastern Small Town. This is a great recognition to start off the new year with.”
